

Decolonizing Delinquencies in Wisconsin: A Discussion Amongst the System Actors in Wisconsin's Juvenile Legal System

WHAT:

A Three-Hour Multidisciplinary Training Presented by the Wisconsin State Public Defender

A Racial Justice Ambassador Capstone Project in conjunction with the Georgetown Juvenile Justice Initiative and the Gault Center

WHO CAN ATTEND: Any system actor in Wisconsin's juvenile legal system (judges, prosecutors, defenders, social workers, etc.) who is interested in the impact of the system on Native and Indigenous youth

WHY:

Learn about the data regarding Native/Indigenous youth and their overrepresentation in Wisconsin's juvenile legal system

Identify potential sources of this overrepresentation

Develop an awareness of the variety and complexity of issues facing Native youth in Wisconsin

Identify culturally competent language when interacting with Native/Indigenous youth

Discuss strategies to disrupt the disproportionate involvement of Native/Indigenous youth in Wisconsin's legal system

WHEN and WHERE: 9am to noon

April 11, 2025: Madison, Wisconsin

May 16, 2025: Green Bay, Wisconsin

June 13, 2025: Eagle River, Wisconsin

August 15, 2025: Black River Falls, Wisconsin

HOW TO REGISTER

